

SOCIAL SERVICES INSURANCE

Sober Living Homes. Addiction Treatment. Non-profit and For-profit Social Services

The work you do is important — people count on the services you provide. Yet no matter how diligent you are, there are risks involved in running a social services organization. You may occasionally have to deal with losses or damages that could potentially shut your doors.

Unless your business is specifically insured with an insurance company specializing in social services, it is quite possible that claims may be excluded from coverage. We offer special packages to protect organizations like yours.
